SONS OF SOLOMON

The horror and bloodshed of war has given rise to malignant creatures since the dawn of man—perhaps longer. Eventually, warriors who encountered these horrors and survived banded together to fight them. But fear gives the monsters power, so the warriors kept this hard-won knowledge to themselves. Under King Solomon in 960 BC, they formed a secret organization to battle the darkness.

The Sons are so evil, keeping themselves in Legion and the

SPOILS OF WAR

In ancient armies, soldiers were often entitled to their victims' plunder as well as any promised pay. Rather than tracking every trinket or even using a cash system, Weird Wars uses the concept of "Spoils."

Spoils represent collections of goods such as gold, icons, jewelry, ingots, or any other valuables legionaries may collect from defeated foes and ravaged cities. After a battle with foes or creatures that might have significant treasure, or after plundering a site that has to be looted by their fellows, the War Master may allow each character a Common Knowledge roll to sort through the goods. Those who make the roll find one Spoil, and those who succeed with a raise find two.

See Players Guide for the things legionaries can do with their Spoils.
